Martin talks a good line but his record shows his true colours.

As Finance Minister, Paul Martin made deep cuts to:

- health care
- social supports
- post-secondary education
- a wide range of public services

And he failed to deliver on:

- child care
- affordable housing
- water, transit and other public infrastructure

As Prime Minister, Paul Martin wants to:

- turn over public services to his big business backers so they can profit from the public purse
